Proposal Inquiry: (Type inquiry below)

Proposal RFI # 4. Is this section boiler plate, or is the contractor required to provide 24 hour guard?
Key control, is section boiler plate, or is contractor required to provide a door with lock? if so where would this door be require?

Add additional as necessary

Owner to provide additional information on accessibility and security.
-Dana Stahl, Teter, 3/19/14

24 hour guard is not required. The requirement for site security is not omitted and, the contractor is expected to follow specification requirements to secure their own site. The methods they choose will have to be coordinated with the assigned COR for that project.
