Questions Answers Nurse Call

1) What kind of PBY Brand and Model Number does this facility have? See Amendment No.2, general clarification #1
2) Will the Nurse Call Server be installed in an existing rack or will a new rack be required See Amendment No.2, general clarification #2
3) Will the Nurse Call Server be connected to an existing UPS or will a new UPS be required? If a new UPS is required is there a specification or preferred model see Amendment No.2, general clarification #2.
4) The Nurse Call System device connectors that are not RJ45 type are not compatible with Category 6 Enhanced Cable. It is acceptable to use standard category 6 cable for these device connections. Fargo VAMC standards require enhanced Category 6 cabling for network connections, see Section 27 10 05 and Section 27 52 23. Follow system manufacturer requirements for other system cabling.
5) Are shop drawings of the existing Hill Rom Integris P2001B Headwalls available. Shops are not available.
6) Will the owner consider a retro-fit installation of the new nurse call system as a value engineered cost saving See Amendment No.2, general clarification #4 for phasing information.
7) How is the Cisco Call Manager going to interface with the current PBX See Amendment No.2, general clarification #3.
8) How is the Cisco Call Manager going to interface with the current Nurse Call System See Section 27 52 23, paragraph 2.18 for description of interface to new nurse call equipment.
9) Has there been a site survey performed to ensure that the current wireless infrastructure can support VOIP. Existing network is sufficient for VOIP.