4. Describe the supply or service to be acquired and the total estimated dollar value:

There was an immediate need for service repair of the x-ray tube for General Electric Medical System Lightspeed VCT XT 64 SL 4 at the Madison VAMC. The system was purchased in March 2010 for [REDACTED] and the warranty expired on March 2011.

[REDACTED]

5. List the proposed contractor (name, contact, and phone number) and describe the unique knowledge or capabilities of the proposed contractor:

[REDACTED]

The Lightspeed VCT XT 64 SL 4 system was not functional and patients were not able to be treated until it was repaired. Parts and on-site service by GE are required to repair the problems. There was no back-up system and the majority of cases would have needed to be outsourced until the system was function again. Parts and on-site service were required to repair the problems. This was requested to be a sole source purchase due to its emergent nature and affecting direct patient care. The contractor shall provide all necessary labor, supervision, materials, and equipment to fix the system. All work performed will be in accordance with the Industry and Conformance standards, manufacturer's recommendations, applicable safety regulations, and will not void the maintenance warranty with GE. There is currently no maintenance contract in place for x-ray tubes; it has been more cost effective to
