

This drawing is from the Building 40 Record Drawings provided by the VA. This drawing is not necessarily to scale. The items in red show a temporary condition during construction that is intended to allow for excavation of the basement while maintaining water service to Building 40. Some minor down times are anticipated for Building 40 and these should occur at times when Building 40 is not occupied and shall be coordinated with the owner.