PROCEDURES AND FORMATS FOR INSCRIBING STONE NICHE COVERS

GENERAL NOTES:

- The family's surname is always placed on the first line (abbreviating where the original surname is longer than the first six characters before the original surname).
- The veteran's identification is always shown following the surname, even if the veteran is not the family member. The following inscription may be used if a marker which will accept inscription of an equal identification for subsequent family members. The inscription of the name of the veteran is not to be placed on the same line as the name of the veteran's spouse. The inscription of the name of the veteran's spouse is to be placed on the same line as the name of the veteran's spouse.
- Above are examples to demonstrate inscription format and procedure. They are based on the maximum allowable number of characters to be used on inscriptions of stone.

SCENARIO NO. 1 - The veteran predeceased the non-veteran spouse.

SCENARIO NO. 2 - The veteran predeceased the veteran's spouse.
