Evaluation Procedures.

All quotations/companies will be evaluated for fair and reasonableness, best value to the United States, technical acceptability, and past performance.

Set Aside Cascading Set-Aside Procedures.

Any award resulting from this solicitation will be made using a cascading set-aside order of precedence. Based upon the market research, and the determination of the appropriate NAICS Code, it has been determined that SDVOSBs, VOSBs, Small and Large Businesses are likely to respond to this solicitation.

1. In accordance with FAR Subpart 19.1405 and VAAR Subpart 819.7005, any award under this solicitation will be made on a competitive basis to an eligible Service Disabled Veteran Owned small business [SDVOSB] concern. If only one SDVOSB responds, award will be made to that company provided that the product offered is technically acceptable.

2. If no SDVOSBs respond to this solicitation, any award under this solicitation will be made on a competitive basis to an eligible Veteran Owned small business [VOSB] concern. If only one VOSB responds, award will be made to that company provided that the product offered is technically acceptable.

3. If no VOSBs respond to this solicitation, any award under this solicitation will be made on a competitive basis to an eligible Small Business [SB] concern. If only one SB responds, award will be made to that company provided that the product offered is technically acceptable.

4. If no SBs respond to this solicitation, full and open procedures will be used and any award under this solicitation will be made on a competitive basis to any other eligible business (large/foreign) provided that the product is technically acceptable.

The VA contracting officer reserves the right to consider competitive quotes submitted from all responsible offerors (including large businesses) in determining the fair market price.
