

Technical Requirements

The Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center, VISN 6 Network Contracting Office (NCO), on behalf of the Asheville VA Medical Center is conducting market research through this Sources Sought Notice to seek qualified vendors for Radiopharmaceuticals and associated supplies (see attached list of projected Radiopharmaceuticals). Potential vendor must be capable of providing all the technical requirements (See Technical Requirements attachment).

The Imaging Service Department at the Asheville VA Medical Center located in Asheville, NC has a requirement for LEU Radiopharmaceuticals and Associated Supplies to be supplied on a daily basis Monday through Friday. To include emergency requirements and continued supply during the event of a disaster.

KEY TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS:

- Provide the Radiopharmaceuticals and associated supplies per the attached Projected list of items.
- Provide all Technetium 99m Radiopharmaceuticals from LEU Generator only (HEU products not acceptable)
- On-site LEU Generator with Manufacturer's certification
- Preparation and delivery of requested Radiopharmaceuticals within 90 minutes after award during regular business hours of 6:30 AM – 4:30 PM local time (North Carolina).
- Pharmacist Board Certification in Nuclear Science or Copy of Radioactive Materials License with Pharmacist Authorized User
- North Carolina (NC) Radioactive Materials License
- Individual doses traceable to the original elution.