CCTV Questions and Answers.

1. The RFP states that the contractor is to supply pricing for Facility Commander SSA Level 1 for the base year plus 4 optional years. However, it also stated that OnGuard is scheduled to be implemented on October 1st 2018. Should the SSA be for the new OnGuard or Facility Commander?

The SSA should be for the new On Guard system.

2. If the SSA is for the installed OnGuard can you please provide the appropriate part number?

I currently do not have a part number for OnGuard.

3. Is the facility entitled to any warranty on the new software?

Yes, the warranty that comes with the software from the manufacturer. We do not currently have the warranty information at this time, but would likely have extended coverage after it expires as well as any future software update would be included.

4. The existing system is a Facility Commander system. Is the system to be upgraded as part of this contract?

The system will be upgraded as part of a different contract which has already been awarded.

5. Please provide a detail count for the cameras. During to site visit it was noted that the main facility has 200 plus cameras and the remote sites each have a few cameras.

Current camera count:

VA Hospital: 217

CBOC Binghamton: 15

CBOC Rome: 9

Dental: 3

Pain Clinic: 5

Veteran Wellness and Recovery Center: 7

Behavioral Health Out-Patient Center: 3

Total: 259

6. Please provide a total door count to include total number of readers in use.

Total Doors including Hospital and off site clinics: 373

Total Card reader including Hospital and off Site clinics: 364

Available ports for future card readers: 110

7. Please confirm that the RFP requires four (4) contract inspections per year.

Yes it does

8. Are all service calls during normal working hours covered under the contract?

The answer is yes, but the VA will pay for them via P.O. after the part has been replaced.

9. Does the contract require the vendor to supply all parts?

No.

10. It was noted during the site visit that the facility repairs all electrified locks. Will this remain for the new contract?

Yes

11. Does the contract require us to provide any attic stock at the site for repairs?

No

12. Will the facility be able to supply a small lockable cabinet for any site stock?

Yes

13. Are there any drawings?

No
