The contractor is required to cooperate fully and make available any records as may be required to enable the CO to assess the contractor's compliance with the limitations on subcontracting or percentage of work performance requirement.

B.3 STATEMENT OF WORK

BACKGROUND

The Vet Center Program is recognized as the first program to address the psychological and social sequela of combat and armed conflict related problems. Before the official recognition of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) by the American Psychiatric Association in 1980, the Vet Center Program set the course for leading the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) in recognition and treatment of war-related PTSD. Authority for Readjustment Counseling to Vietnam Veterans originated from Public Law 96-22 and subsequent legislation amends readjustment counseling services. Current law authorizing readjustment counseling is contained in title 38 U.S.C. § 1712A. Under 38 U.S.C. § 1712A(e)(3), contracting authority for readjustment counseling and related mental health services, is effective for any fiscal year only to the extent and amounts that are provided for in appropriations Acts.

OBJECTIVE

As a continuum of care to treat combat related injuries, including those related to behavioral health, the Contractor shall provide six (6) outdoor experience events focusing on building trust and developing peer support for All Era Veterans (AEV). Each outdoor experience event should assist in the Veterans' recovery of personal and interpersonal confidence, self-esteem, and trust building relationships as it relates to their re-integration into their community and family.

CHANGES: Changes to this original statement of work as part of the established contract shall be authorized and approved by the VA Contracting Officer only.

Changes determined by the Contracting Officer to be within the general scope of the contract shall be made in accordance with FAR 52.212-4(c), "Changes," and shall not necessitate new solicitation proceedings.

OUTDOOR EXPERIENCE EVENT

The Contractor shall provide six (6) Outdoor Experience Events. Each event shall accommodate twenty (20) participants and two (2) Readjustment Counseling Services (RCS) Therapists for four (4) days.

The Outdoor Experience Event shall be quasi-facility based; outdoor sports activities such as hiking, rock-climbing, canoeing, backpacking, camping, etc. should be woven into the program to facilitate group and individual assistance with the transitional recovery efforts for participants. The selected event locations and activities shall accommodate ADA participants. The expectation of the outdoor experience activity setting is to conduct the program events in an outdoor setting to allow for bonding between participants and to further the recovery process of the participants.

PERIOD OF PERFORMANCE

September 25, 2018 – September 24, 2019 (estimated)

LOCATION

The six (6) Outdoor Experience Events shall be held within the Pacific District 5 (California, Washington, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, America Samoa, Hawaii, Guam, Alaska) geographic locations to accommodate potential participants from the various District Vet Centers. The preferred Outdoor Experience Event location settings should best accommodate seasonal variations for outside activity.

If air travel is utilized, it should not exceed an average of an 1,800-mile radius each way. West Coast participants may originate from Guam, Hawaii, and the America Samoa. It is also possible that participants could originate from Puerto Rico or Virgin Islands territories. There will be no attendees from the Philippines region.

PARTICIPANT PROFILE

Most participants will be physically functional to participate without assistance. However, there may be participant(s) that may require adaptive equipment or some assistance.

Participation in this event is strictly at the election of the Veteran. The RCS staff will work with the Contractor on the list of participants for each event. RCS staff will provide early intervention and screen participants prior to nomination to attend the outdoor experience. The participants may or may not be from the same geographic area.

The participants will be come from each general geographic area bordering the outdoor experience location. The participants may or may not know other participants as most participants will not originate from the same Vet Centers, but from different Vet Centers across that geographic area.

Participants will be Vet Center clients and may be in counseling at their local Vet Center or DVA medical facilities. Contractor shall not provide any counseling. Some participants may not have attended any formal professional counseling, and the RCS staff will play a key role in encouraging their recovery during the outdoor experience.

The RCS staff will contact each participant before the trip to help rest their fears of leaving their safe place and embarking on an unknown journey with people they may have never met before. Many of the participants have not socialized with anyone since they returned from the war.

OUTDOOR EXPERIENCE EVENT PROGRAM

The Outdoor Experience Event agenda will be structured to provide participants the opportunity to learn about themselves through stimulating individual or group activities.

The Outdoor Experience Event will provide an educational environment that will allow the participants to develop a personal awareness and respect for the natural world. The outdoor experiences may include, but are not limited to ropes courses, zip-lines, hiking, rock-climbing, canoeing, backpacking, camping, archery, equine events, kayaking, jet skiing, water sports, boating, etc.

The expected outcome for the participants are to gain:

- Greater self confidence
- Respect for self and others
- Mutual trust
- A sense of personal and group accomplishment
- A sense of personal and group responsibility
- A sense of the self as part of a larger whole in the natural world

CONTRACTOR RESPONSIBILITIES AND DELIVERABLES

Develop and present an appropriate four (4) day program/plan that will facilitate individual and group activities to enhance readjustment from the military to civilian life and continuum of care. The Contractor shall include information about all program materials, ensuring availability of necessary office and outdoor supplies and equipment to execute the program.

Day 1	Travel	2 meals (lunch & dinner)
Day 2	Event (8 hours)	3 meals (breakfast, lunch & dinner)
Day 3	Event (8 hours)	3 meals (breakfast, lunch & dinner)

H. Participant Evaluation Assessment

- Contractor shall develop, conduct, and provide results of a Participant Evaluation Assessment

- The results of the Participant Evaluation Assessment shall reflect both on a qualitative and quantitative measurement level based on the proposed program agenda.

Prior to the event, the Contractor shall work with the RCS staff, COR and Vet Center designee on the agenda and shall have prior approval before commencement of the event. The Contractor shall make all arrangements for the Outdoor Experience Event and shall conduct the event as approved by the COR. If air travel is required the Contractor will work with the VA and the Veteran to coordinate travel.

Contractor shall provide the RCS and COR with a detailed plan to include location and schedule of activities 100 days prior to each outdoor experience event.

Upon receipt of participant list from RCS, Contractor shall arrange appropriate travel for approval by the COR at least 60 days prior to the event.

The Contractor shall provide group and/or individual activities, in a group setting, that emphasizes and supports the key objectives of care to treat combat related injuries, including those related to behavioral health. The Contractor staff shall have appropriate certification and experience to conduct outdoor activities.

Computer/phone access for participants for activities will depend on the Contractor's planned program activities. However, the Contractor shall have an approved, by the COR, communication method in remote areas. The lodging facility shall have phone and internet access.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF VA

The RCS clinical staff will function as observers to monitor the participants and provide individual and/or group counseling, as needed, to assist the participants during the outdoor experience.

The RCS staff will be available for individual and group counseling, as needed, as determined by the RCS staff or by the request of the Contractor staff. The Contractor shall develop appropriate team building activities that will establish participant trust and enable the RCS staff to build on those relationships and activities.

During the event, RCS staff will support participants with their emotional needs.

If air travel is required, the VA will work with the Contractor and Veteran to make the necessary travel arrangements to arrive at the Outdoor Experience Event and back home to the Veterans residence.

The COR will provide a list of participants to the Contractor a minimum of 60 days prior to each outdoor experience event.

SECTION C - CONTRACT CLAUSES

ADDENDUM to FAR 52.212-4 CONTRACT TERMS AND CONDITIONS—COMMERCIAL ITEMS

Clauses that are incorporated by reference (by Citation Number, Title, and Date), have the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. Upon request, the Contracting Officer will make their full text available.

The following clauses are incorporated into 52.212-4 as an addendum to this contract:

C.1 52.216-18 ORDERING (OCT 1995)

(a) Any supplies and services to be furnished under this contract shall be ordered by issuance of delivery orders or task orders by the individuals or activities designated in the Schedule. Such orders may be issued from the effective date of the contract through the end of the effective period.

(b) All delivery orders or task orders are subject to the terms and conditions of this contract. In the event of conflict between a delivery order or task order and this contract, the contract shall control.

(c) If mailed, a delivery order or task order is considered "issued" when the Government deposits the order in the mail. Orders may be issued orally, by facsimile, or by electronic commerce methods only if authorized in the Schedule.

(End of Clause)

C.2 52.216-19 ORDER LIMITATIONS (OCT 1995)

(a) Minimum order. When the Government requires supplies or services covered by this contract in an amount of less than $100.00, the Government is not obligated to purchase, nor is the Contractor obligated to furnish, those supplies or services under the contract.

(b) Maximum order. The Contractor is not obligated to honor—

(1) Any order for a single item in excess of $500,000.00;

(2) Any order for a combination of items in excess of $1,000,000.00; or

(3) A series of orders from the same ordering office within 1 days that together call for quantities exceeding the limitation in paragraph (b)(1) or (2) of this section.

(c) If this is a requirements contract (i.e., includes the Requirements clause at subsection 52.216-21 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR)), the Government is not required to order a part of any one requirement from the Contractor if that requirement exceeds the maximum-order limitations in paragraph (b) of this section.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the Contractor shall honor any order exceeding the maximum order limitations in paragraph (b), unless that order (or orders) is returned to the ordering office within 7 days after issuance, with written notice stating the Contractor's intent not to ship the item (or items) called for and the reasons. Upon receiving this notice, the Government may acquire the supplies or services from another source.

(End of Clause)

C.3 52.216-22 INDEFINITE QUANTITY (OCT 1995)

(a) This is an indefinite-quantity contract for the supplies or services specified, and effective for the period stated, in the Schedule. The quantities of supplies and services specified in the Schedule are estimates only and are not purchased by this contract.

(b) Delivery or performance shall be made only as authorized by orders issued in accordance with the Ordering clause. The Contractor shall furnish to the Government, when and if ordered, the supplies or services specified in the Schedule up to and including the quantity designated in the Schedule as the "maximum." The Government shall order at least the quantity of supplies or services designated in the Schedule as the "minimum."

(c) Except for any limitations on quantities in the Order Limitations clause or in the Schedule, there is no limit on the number of orders that may be issued. The Government may issue orders requiring delivery to multiple destinations or performance at multiple locations.

(d) Any order issued during the effective period of this contract and not completed within that period shall be completed by the Contractor within the time specified in the order. The contract shall govern the Contractor's and Government's rights and obligations with respect to that order to the same extent as if the order were completed during the contract's effective period; provided, that the Contractor shall not be required to make any deliveries under this contract after September 25, 2019 (estimated).

(End of Clause)

C.4 52.217-8 OPTION TO EXTEND SERVICES (NOV 1999)

The Government may require continued performance of any services within the limits and at the rates specified in the contract. These rates may be adjusted only as a result of revisions to prevailing labor rates provided by the Secretary of Labor. The option provision may be exercised more than once, but the total extension of performance hereunder shall not exceed 6 months. The Contracting Officer may exercise the option by written notice to the Contractor within 5 days.

(End of Clause)

C.5 52.252-2 CLAUSES INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE (FEB 1998)

This contract incorporates one or more clauses by reference, with the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. Upon request, the Contracting Officer will make their full text available. Also, the full text of a clause may be accessed electronically at this/these address(es):

<http://www.acquisition.gov/far/index.html>
<http://www.va.gov/oal/library/vaar/>

(End of Clause)

C.6 VAAR 852.203-70 COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING (MAY 2018)

The Contractor shall not make reference in its commercial advertising to Department of Veterans Affairs contracts in a manner that states or implies the Department of Veterans Affairs approves or endorses the Contractor's products or services or considers the Contractor's products or services superior to other products or services.

(End of Clause)

C.7 VAAR 852.232-72 ELECTRONIC SUBMISSION OF PAYMENT REQUESTS (NOV 2012)

(a) Definitions. As used in this clause—

(1) Contract financing payment has the meaning given in FAR 32.001.

(2) Designated agency office has the meaning given in 5 CFR 1315.2(m).

(3) Electronic form means an automated system transmitting information electronically according to the Accepted electronic data transmission methods and formats identified in paragraph (c) of this clause. Facsimile, email, and scanned documents are not acceptable electronic forms for submission of payment requests.

(4) Invoice payment has the meaning given in FAR 32.001.

(5) Payment request means any request for contract financing payment or invoice payment submitted by the contractor under this contract.

(b) Electronic payment requests. Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this clause, the contractor shall submit payment requests in electronic form. Purchases paid with a Government-wide commercial purchase card are considered to be an electronic transaction for purposes of this rule, and therefore no additional electronic invoice submission is required.

(c) Data transmission. A contractor must ensure that the data transmission method and format are through one of the following:

(1) VA's Electronic Invoice Presentment and Payment System. (See Web site at <http://www.fsc.va.gov/einvoice.asp>.)

(2) Any system that conforms to the X12 electronic data interchange (EDI) formats established by the Accredited Standards Center (ASC) and chartered by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI). The X12 EDI Web site (<http://www.x12.org>) includes additional information on EDI 810 and 811 formats.

(d) Invoice requirements. Invoices shall comply with FAR 32.905.

(e) Exceptions. If, based on one of the circumstances below, the contracting officer directs that payment requests be made by mail, the contractor shall submit payment requests by mail through the United States Postal Service to the designated agency office. Submission of payment requests by mail may be required for:

(1) Awards made to foreign vendors for work performed outside the United States;

(2) Classified contracts or purchases when electronic submission and processing of payment requests could compromise the safeguarding of classified or privacy information;

(3) Contracts awarded by contracting officers in the conduct of emergency operations, such as responses to national emergencies;

(4) Solicitations or contracts in which the designated agency office is a VA entity other than the VA Financial Services Center in Austin, Texas; or

(5) Solicitations or contracts in which the VA designated agency office does not have electronic invoicing capability as described above.

(End of Clause)

C.8 VAAR 852.237-70 CONTRACTOR RESPONSIBILITIES (APR 1984)

The contractor shall obtain all necessary licenses and/or permits required to perform this work. He/she shall take all reasonable precautions necessary to protect persons and property from injury or damage during the performance of this contract. He/she shall be responsible for any injury to himself/herself, his/her employees, as well as for any damage to personal or public property that occurs during the performance of this contract that is caused by his/her employees fault or negligence, and shall maintain personal liability and property damage insurance having coverage for a limit as required by the laws of the State of California. Further, it is agreed that any negligence of the Government, its officers, agents, servants and employees, shall not be the responsibility of the contractor hereunder with the regard to any claims, loss, damage, injury, and liability resulting there from.

(d) Comptroller General Examination of Record. The Contractor shall comply with the provisions of this paragraph (d) if this contract was awarded using other than sealed bid, is in excess of the simplified acquisition threshold, and does not contain the clause at 52.215-2, Audit and Records—Negotiation.

(1) The Comptroller General of the United States, or an authorized representative of the Comptroller General, shall have access to and right to examine any of the Contractor's directly pertinent records involving transactions related to this contract.

(2) The Contractor shall make available at its offices at all reasonable times the records, materials, and other evidence for examination, audit, or reproduction, until 3 years after final payment under this contract or for any shorter period specified in FAR Subpart 4.7, Contractor Records Retention, of the other clauses of this contract. If this contract is completely or partially terminated, the records relating to the work terminated shall be made available for 3 years after any resulting final termination settlement. Records relating to appeals under the disputes clause or to litigation or the settlement of claims arising under or relating to this contract shall be made available until such appeals, litigation, or claims are finally resolved.

(3) As used in this clause, records include books, documents, accounting procedures and practices, and other data, regardless of type and regardless of form. This does not require the Contractor to create or maintain any record that the Contractor does not maintain in the ordinary course of business or pursuant to a provision of law.

(e)(1) Notwithstanding the requirements of the clauses in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this clause, the Contractor is not required to flow down any FAR clause, other than those in this paragraph (e)(1) in a subcontract for commercial items. Unless otherwise indicated below, the extent of the flow down shall be as required by the clause—

(i) 52.203-13, Contractor Code of Business Ethics and Conduct (OCT 2015) (41 U.S.C. 3509).

(ii) 52.203-19, Prohibition on Requiring Certain Internal Confidentiality Agreements or Statements (JAN 2017) (section 743 of Division E, Title VII, of the Consolidated and Further Continuing Appropriations Act, 2015 (Pub. L. 113-235) and its successor provisions in subsequent appropriations acts (and as extended in continuing resolutions)).

(iii) 52.219-8, Utilization of Small Business Concerns (NOV 2016) (15 U.S.C. 637(d)(2) and (3)), in all subcontracts that offer further subcontracting opportunities.

(iv) 52.222-17, Nondisplacement of Qualified Workers (MAY 2014) (E.O. 13495). Flow down required in accordance with paragraph (l) of FAR clause 52.222-17.

(v) 52.222-21, Prohibition of Segregated Facilities (APR 2015).

(vi) 52.222-26, Equal Opportunity (SEP 2016) (E.O. 11246).

SECTION E - SOLICITATION PROVISIONS

ADDENDUM to FAR 52.212-1 INSTRUCTIONS TO OFFERORS—COMMERCIAL ITEMS

Provisions that are incorporated by reference (by Citation Number, Title, and Date), have the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. Upon request, the Contracting Officer will make their full text available.

The following provisions are incorporated into 52.212-1 as an addendum to this solicitation:

- a. Offerors should thoroughly review the specifications of the SOW prior to submitting a proposal. Failure to understand the SOW requirements shall not relieve the successful Offeror from performing in accordance with the strict meaning and intent of the SOW.
- b. Submission of Offers. The Offeror must complete and return all required documents prior to the time and date specified in the “Current Response Date” on the first page of the combined synopsis/solicitation in order to be considered for award.
- c. Price/Cost Schedule. The Offeror shall completely fill out the Price/Cost Schedule provided in this combined synopsis/solicitation. No other format for the submission of the Price/Cost Schedule shall be accepted. The price stated in the offer shall be an inclusive price.
- d. Period of Acceptance of Offers. The Offeror agrees to hold prices in its offer, firm for a period of 120 days from the date specified for the receipt of offers.
- e. Questions shall be submitted in writing via email no later than September 13, 2018 at 10:00am to Stephen Y. Kwak at Stephen.kwak@va.gov. All questions shall be answered via an amendment to the FBO posting on or about September 17, 2018.
- f. Offerors shall submit proposals via email to Stephen Y. Kwak at Stephen.kwak@va.gov by September 21, 2018 at 10:00am.
- g. Technical. Offeror clearly demonstrates, in its proposal, a clear understanding of the requirements listed in the Statement of Work. The Offeror shall submit a technical proposal, no more than ten pages, that describes the means and methods of successfully performing all work detailed in the Statement of Work. The Offeror shall provide sample itineraries for six (6) different trip locations in accordance with the four (4) day plan/program format as outlined in the “Contractor Responsibilities and Deliverables” section of the Statement of Work. The sample itineraries will be excluded from the ten-page limit.
- h. Price. Offerors shall submit a price/cost breakdown for each trip location, to include: travel costs, lodging costs, overhead, and any other applicable costs associated with each trip location. Offerors are reminded to also submit the Price/Cost Schedule as described in Section C, Price/Cost Schedule, of this addendum.

E.8 52.212-2 EVALUATION—COMMERCIAL ITEMS (OCT 2014)

(a) Basis of Award. This procurement is being conducted pursuant to FAR Part 13 procedures. The Government intends to award a contract resulting from this solicitation to the responsible Offeror on a comparative basis whose proposal conforms to the solicitation, represents the best overall value to the Government, and whose proposal does not take exception with any of the requirements for this procurement specified in the solicitation.

(b) Evaluation Process. Proposals will be evaluated in the following manner. The Government will conduct a comparative evaluation of proposals based on the following criteria:

Technical – The Offeror’s proposal shall be evaluated on its understanding of the requirements listed in the Statement of Work, how the Offeror will successfully perform all work detailed in the Statement of Work, and the itineraries for the six (6) different trip locations.

Price – The Offeror’s price will be evaluated to determine if the offered price is reasonable and if the proposal does not take exception with any of the requirements for this procurement.

Technical is more important than price.

(c) If the Offeror’s price is found to be reasonable and the proposal does not take exception with any of the requirements for this procurement, the contracting officer will determine if the Offeror is responsible using the general standards of responsibility. The contracting officer may find all offers not acceptable and cancel the procurement. The Government intends to evaluate offers and award a contract without discussions with offerors. However, the Government reserves the right to conduct discussions at any time if determined by the contracting officer to be in the Government’s interest.
